

ANTI-SOCIAL BEHAVIOUR REFORMS What's new?

SEMINAR:

Thursday 1st May 2014

Registration and buffet lunch at 1pm

Seminar from 2 pm to 5 pm

Venue: Hardwicke Building, Lincoln's Inn, London, WC2A 3SB

This summer will see the passing of the Anti-Social Behaviour, Crime & Policing Bill, which will fundamentally reform the remedies available to registered providers, and others, in dealing with ASB. For example, Anti-Social Behaviour Orders are to be abolished, ASB Injunctions will be replaced by Injunctions to Prevent Nuisance & Annoyance and mandatory grounds for possession will be introduced in certain cases.

This seminar - which is run in conjunction with the renowned Social Housing Team at Hardwicke Chambers - will explain the changes and their practical implications for private registered providers and each participant will be provided with a comprehensive pack setting out the reforms in detail. It is aimed at officers of registered providers with a reasonable knowledge of ASB procedures and practice.

Speakers will include Daniel Skinner & Thaine Wilson of Batchelors and Andy Lane, Alastair Redpath-Stevens & Dean Underwood

Please complete the registration form on the following page. Your booking will be confirmed along with joining instructions. If you require any further information please do not hesitate to contact us.
