Social Housing

Training Programme 2013

We are pleased to announce our Social Housing seminar programme for 2013, which will consist of a number of breakfast and evening workshops, including:

Making the most of your evidence: Hearsay and its treatment in the county court
Chair: Alexander Bastin
Speakers: Karl King & Alastair Redpath-Stevens
Date: Monday, 11 February 2013 (17.00 – 18.30)

Homelessness out of hours: Getting it right
Chair: Dean Underwood
Speakers: Laura Tweedy & Anna Tkaczynska
Date: Tuesday, 5 March 2013 (17.00 – 18.30)

Preparing for reform: The Welfare Reform Act 2012 and its impact on social housing
Chair: Andrew Lane
Speakers: Dean Underwood & Alexander Campbell
Date: Thursday, 21 March 2013 (08.30 – 10.00)

The Equality Act 2010: Defences to possession claims and the role of the assessor
Chair: Arthur Moore
Speakers: Andrew Lane & Laura Tweedy
Date: Tuesday, 14 May 2013 (17.00 – 18.30)

The right to respect for one's home – where now for Article 8?
Chair: Monty Palfrey
Speakers: Arthur Moore & Leon Glenister
Date: Thursday 18 July 2013 (08.30 – 10.00)

Vulnerable tenant, vulnerable landlord: common pitfalls in claims against vulnerable adults
Chair: Fiona Scolding
Speakers: Alison Meacher & Anna Tkaczynska
Date: Tuesday, 1 October 2013 (17.00 – 18.30)

Localism one year on – where are we now?
Chair: Dean Underwood
Speakers: Morayo Fagborun Bennett & Lina Mattsson
Date: Thursday, 28 November 2013 (08.30 – 10.00)

All workshops in this programme will be free of charge and CPD accredited.

If you require further information about the programme or the speakers, please contact Daniel Kemp (daniel.kemp@hardwicke.co.uk, 020 7691 0003), and to make a booking, please contact lisa.tompsett@hardwicke.co.uk indicating the topic(s) you are interested in. We will then contact you to make further arrangements – please note that spaces are limited.