

Professional Liability Online Seminar Series

We are delighted to announce the dates for our Professional Liability Seminar Series for 2021.

These seminars will be hosted online until further notice. We will circulate the joining instructions for each session in due course.

To register for the talks individually please click the relevant links below, alternatively please click here to register for more than one talk.

---

24 September 2021, 11:00-12:00 (BST) | Solicitors' and barristers' negligence

This session will look at the current law relating to claims against solicitors and barristers. What is the scope of their responsibility?

Register

James Hall

Jack Dillon

---

20 October 2021, 11:00-12:00 (BST) | Construction professionals' negligence

Developments in the law relating to construction professionals' negligence, and the pros and cons of using adjudication as a means of resolving disputes.

Register

Emma Hynes

Michael Levenstein

---

24 November 2021, 11:00-12:00 (GMT) | Surveyors' negligence

Recent developments in the law relating to surveyors' liability both related to Covid-19 and generally.

Register

John de Waal QC

Priya Gopal

---

14 December 2021, 11:00-12:00 (GMT) | Financial advisors' negligence

An examination of when, both as a matter of law and also in practice, the Court is likely to give permission for expert evidence in financial adviser cases, both on liability and quantum.

Register

Tom Bell

Martyn Griffiths

---

20 January 2022, 11:00-12:00 (GMT) | Clinical negligence claims

A guide to avoiding the elephant traps when dealing with claims arising out of clinical negligence. The session looks at liability, quantum, pre-action, tactics and disclosure.

Register

Colm Nugent

Emma Woods

---

Please e-mail out events team if you have any questions.

Visit our website to learn more about the team.