

Complex Inquests: Procedure & Practice

Gatehouse Chambers' complex Inquest and Inquiries Team continue their series of 6 inquest training sessions to take you through the Autumn. The sessions provide a breadth of subjects for all levels of practice, including a session for those starting their practice in inquests through to the more complicated judgement calls regarding Rule 22 and self-incrimination.

Delegates can pick and choose which webinars they would like to attend, or register for all of them by getting in touch.

If you have any questions about the programme, please email events@gatehouselaw.co.uk.

1 - Neglect

27 Sep 2022, 12:00 pm - 12:45 pm
Emma Zeb and Aneurin Moloney

A finding of neglect is often used as a springboard to a civil claim for damages, and can be a devastating blow to organisations and individuals found to have been neglectful. Aneurin and Emma will discuss the rules, pitfalls, and tips for success in this Brew.

Emma Zeb

Aneurin Moloney

Register

2 - Prevention of Future Deaths Reports

14 Oct 2022, 12:00 pm - 12:45 pm
Vanessa McKinlay and Helena Drage

Coroners must consider whether to issue a PFD report to a person or organisation where, in their view, action should be taken to prevent a future death. In this session, Vanessa and Helena discuss the coroner's duties, the scope of such reports, and the process for production of these reports. Importantly, Vanessa and Helena will give guidance on how to approach witness evidence and prepare for the inquest as it concerns issues of PFD.

Vanessa McKinlay

Helena Drage

Register

3 - The Rule Against Self - Incrimination

21 Nov 2022, 12:00 pm - 12:45 pm
Emma Zeb and Helena Drage

Emma and Helena will take you through the application of Rule 22 of the Coroner's Rules with some tips on how to deal with such issues when they arise.

Emma Zeb

Helena Drage

Register

4 - Inquests for Juniors

29 Nov 2022, 12:00 pm - 12:45 pm
Aneurin Moloney and Emma Woods

For those new to the arena of the Coroner's Courts, the procedure and law can seem a world away from civil litigation. Aneurin and Emma will discuss the key procedural rules and legal principles that every new practitioner should know.

Emma Woods

Aneurin Moloney

Register

Other resources

Feel free to catch up with our previous Brew on Conclusions here.

Have a read of Emma's articles on the Chief Coroner's Guidance No.42 in respect of remote participation here.

And her article on the Coroners (Determination of Suicide) Bill here.